

Squirrel away more super to pay less tax and unlock compound interest

In summer when food is in abundance squirrels could feast like it's Christmas lunch every day, instead they chose to eat only what they need and collect the rest to see them through the winter months.

Think of your pay like the squirrels food, don't eat all of it at once, instead, put some aside and you will benefit now and in the long run.

Make your salary work smarter

It's called a 'salary sacrifice' but it can be an excellent tax reducing move. The more money you put into your super account the more interest it will earn over time and it can even be used to reduce your yearly tax bill.

Reach out to your work's payroll team today to see how you can put more of your salary into super.

Forage more into your super

The first $25,000 into your super account every year is taxed at just 15 cents in the dollar.

3.

Earn compound interest

Like us Albert Einstein wasn't a fan of financial jargon but he called compound interest the 8th wonder of the world, "those who understand it earn it.... those who don't.... pay it."
