Section 4: Convert TRP to a retirement pension

Your TRP will convert automatically to a retirement pension when you reach age 65. If you wish to convert your TRP prior to age 65, you must satisfy one of the following 'conditions of release'.

I declare that (tick appropriate condition of release):

- I have retired permanently from the workforce
- I have ceased a paid employment arrangement since turning age 60.
Date ceased employment: (DD/MM/YYYY)
- I am permanently incapacitated<sup>2</sup>
- I have been diagnosed as being terminally ill<sup>2</sup>

When your TRP converts to a retirement pension:

- there is no maximum limit on the annual income amount you can choose to receive
- you can withdraw lump sum amounts in addition to your annual income payments
- investment earnings on assets in your retirement pension are tax free.

See the smartMonday PENSION Product Disclosure Statement for more information.

<sup>1</sup> For name changes, you need to attach a certified copy of a relevant official document showing your original name and your new name. See the factsheet Identification (ID) rules and certification of documents on our website for Change of name requirements and who can certify document copies. For a date of birth correction, you need to attach a certified copy of your birth certificate, driver's licence or passport.

<sup>2</sup> Additional requirements apply to a release under these conditions. Please contact us.

Section 5: Your investment switch

Section 7:
Your non-binding
death benefit nomination

In the event of your death while you are a member of the Fund, the benefit provided under the rules of the Fund is usually payable by the trustee to one or more of your dependants or to your estate. Dependants are limited by law to your spouse, your children and any other persons who are financially dependent on you or in an interdependency relationship with you. Your nomination of preferred beneficiaries below will only be used as a guide by the trustee in deciding who should receive your death benefit. (Note: If you wish to make a binding nomination, complete the Binding death benefit nomination form on our website.)

If you do not have any dependants please cross this box.

If you do have dependants, we recommend that you list them as your preferred beneficiaries or your legal personal representative/executor for payment of your death benefit below. However you are not required by law to do so. You may change this nomination at any time. Attach a letter if you wish to nominate more than four beneficiaries.

Your percentage nominations must amount to 100% of your benefit.

Section 8: Privacy

The fund is subject to the trustee's privacy statement, which is available at eqt.com.au/global/privacystatement.

Section 9: Your declaration and authorisation

I declare that:

- > I am the person named on this form, or have the power of attorney to act on the member's behalf.
- > The information I have provided on this form is true and correct.
- > I understand investment switches submitted on a valid form will usually take 3 to 5 business days to be completed and displayed in my account.
- > I understand that smartMonday may, from time to time, suspend switching capabilities and unit pricing of investment options.
- > I have read the current PDS which is designed to help me understand the product and to enable me to make an informed investment choice that is suitable for me.
- > My nomination of preferred beneficiaries is not legally binding on the trustee. I also understand that I can change this nomination at any time.
- > I have read the privacy statement, and consent to my personal information being handled in accordance with that statement.
- > If I am disclosing personal information about another person, I have obtained their consent to disclose their personal information to smartMonday or the trustee. I have made them aware that smartMonday or the trustee may disclose their information to third parties that are reasonably necessary to assist in the provision of the relevant services or products. If I have not obtained the consent of the other person, I will inform smartMonday or the trustee of this.
