

Enquiries & complaints

At smartMonday we take your enquiries and complaints seriously and will always do our best to make things right and learn from your feedback so we can continuously improve our service. To help us achieve that goal we've set up a formal procedure to ensure your matter is handled fairly and also as quickly as possible.

Contact us

As a first step, we recommend raising your concern by contacting us. Please see the table below for details.

Let us put it right

We will provide you a response no later than 45 calendar days after receiving your complaint, unless another timeframe is allowed or required under the relevant legislation. If we are unable to provide you a response within this timeframe, we will provide you a delay notification advising you the reasons for the delay, as well as your rights to complain to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).

How it works

An acknowledgement email or letter will be issued to you at the time of receipt of your complaint. Our team will investigate and respond on all aspects of the matters raised in your complaint. If you made complaint by phone you may receive your acknowledgement by phone.

Where an error (on our part) is identified during our investigation, we will work to rectify the issue promptly.

A formal response will be reviewed by the Trustee and ultimately issued to you in accordance with the maximum timeframes.

Still not happy?

If you're not satisfied with our handling of your complaint, or a response is not provided within 45 days, you may be able to refer the matter to AFCA:

Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA):
 M. GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001
 P. 1800 931 678
 E. info@afca.org.au
 W. www.afca.org.au

AFCA is a service authorised by the Government that provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution. It is free to use. Time limits may apply to make a complaint with AFCA so you should act promptly or otherwise consult the AFCA website to find out if or when the time limit relevant to your circumstances expire.

At smartMonday, we don't always see complaints as a negative. Our goal is the continuous improvement of our services and any areas of improvement identified via feedback and complaints is highly regarded. All complaints will be treated with respect and sensitivity for your perspectives, concerns, and privacy.

Please note, in some instances, it may not be possible for us to provide the outcome you are seeking. In these instances, we will clearly and respectfully explain why this is not possible. While we understand that you're likely to be feeling disappointed and upset with us in order to raise a complaint, we request that your dealings with our staff are courteous and respectful. In other words, abusive or harassing behaviour towards our staff will not be tolerated.

If you have any additional questions in issuing the complaint, concerns about your membership or anything to do with smartMonday, feel free to contact us.
